2024 ANNUAL DUES DUE AND PAYABLE BY APRIL 1, 2024

Dear Colleague:

Below is your 2024 membership dues invoice for the Philadelphia Association of Defense Counsel (PADC). PADC continues to be a strong defense organization which has increased membership over the last two years. PADC continues to provide valuable resources to Philadelphia’s civil defense lawyers, even in unprecedented times. We continue to offer our members monthly CLE programs and other special programs including a Wellness program, Women’s program, Young Lawyers program and DEI program. Our webinars and other special programs are led by prominent industry speakers in their respective fields of practice and address emerging issues important to our members and the clients they serve. Our members’ listserv is a popular tool for our members to communicate about issues that arise in their practices and share expert information. As evidence of PADC’s vitality and service to our members, PADC was recognized nationally in 2020 as the premier local civil defense bar organization in the United States by Defense Research Institute (DRI).

Again in 2024, we will offer our membership dues at no increase since 2019. We will also continue our membership dues reduction campaign and offer membership at a discounted rate at 10% for firms with 10-14 members, 15% for firms with 15-19 members and 20% to firms with 20 or more members. Finally, we will continue to offer our CLE webinars and in-person CLE luncheons in 2024 at no charge to PADC members.

We hope you will renew your PADC membership in 2024 and add additional members from your firm. We also hope that you will consider joining one or more of our substantive committees (Amicus, Community Service, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, Legislation, Programs, Sponsorships, Technology and Social Media, and Young Lawyers). We encourage you to get involved in PADC.

Please use this form to renew your firm’s individual memberships and add additional members. Remember that firms with 10-14 members are entitled to a 10% group discount, firms with 15-19 PADC members are entitled to a 15% discount and firms with 20 or more PADC members will receive a 20% discount.

I look forward to seeing you at an upcoming PADC event, webinar or in-person CLE luncheon and thank you for your continuing support of this great organization.

Kenneth S. Butensky, President
Philadelphia Association of Defense Counsel
